

1) Myths are stories which a culture accepts as both TRUE and FOUNDATIONAL account of there human identity.

2) Creation myths provide a sense of place and being.

They help explain the world around us, based on what we know and see.

The universe

Nature

Humanity

“Sense of Place”

3) Platypus

What to Study...

-What is a creation myth

-What is wrong with the term “myth”

-Why are creation myths important? What role and function do they have?

-“Sense of place”

-Be able to refer to and explain the myths from the handout

Myths to Study:

-Iroquois

-Hawaiian

-Australian

-African Bushman

Things that could be asked...

Apply myth the scientific examples – astrology

~four questions -ish

Ex “I don’t believe in black holes.” – Provide an argument to convince me.

-Gravity

-Gravitational Model

-Space and Time

-Concept of Galaxies

-Stars – What are they made of? Elements...

-Measuring distance

- 1AU is the distance from the sun to the Earth

-Math and scientific notation

Tomorrow:

Sample problems in class –

Bring all your notes!!!!

Vocabulary activity in class –

Know your definitions. All vocabulary in handout.